

JOHN BLANCO

General Manager

John Blanco, a dynamic leader with strong values and a passion for service excellence, is appointed as the General Manager of Capella Bangkok, opened in October 2020. Located along the rejuvenated Chao Phraya River waterfront promenade, Capella Bangkok offers 101 rooms, suites and villas with panoramic views of Thailand's revered river.

An American with roots in Venezuela, John is a global citizen who was raised in various cities around the world. His sterling career took him to iconic destinations where inspiring travel experiences are conjured.

For the past 25 years, John was single-minded in his pursuit of luxury hospitality with an impressive track record at Ritz Carlton, Four Seasons and many award-winning independent hotels. His global perspective and proficiency in six languages put him in good stead to curate memorable experiences for Capella Bangkok's international clientele.

Tasked with the debut of Capella Hotels and Resorts' first property in Thailand, John provides strategic guidance to the team ensuring operational success and premium positioning of Capella Bangkok.

Poised on the east bank of the River of Kings, Capella Bangkok is an integral part of the prestigious new development, Chao Phraya Estate. All rooms at this new luxury landmark offer unobstructed river views complemented by the exceptional hallmarks of Capella Hotels and Resorts.
